BLESSED SACRAMENT OUTREACH HEARTS FOR THE HOMELESS

Hearts For the Homeless of Western New York, Inc. is a mobile soup kitchen that feeds the poor and homeless on the street, characterized by a profound spiritual motivation. The program offers nourishing food as well as winter clothing, pertinent information regarding area services, companionship, and hope for the future.

Please take the time to think about both programs (Coats 4 Kids and Hearts for the Homeless) and contribute what you can. The good news is that you don't necessarily need to spend money, just some time going through drawers, closets, pantries, etc. and donating items that are still useful and in good condition. You will find two large Bins in the back of the church where you can deposit your items, to be picked up by volunteers and transported to the designated locations.

Thank you all.

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC - BENEATH THE SURFACE

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Mini Reflection:

"Increase my faith." I've said to God plenty of times, imagining a prayer life that is effortless and a sacramental life that is uncomplicated. Easy faith - that's what I'm asking for, and lots of it, please. But easy faith isn't faith at all.

The Father Who Knows What You Want:

It's easy to give your kid what he's asking for. It's hard to give him what he wants.

If a kid asks to eat an ice cream cone, that's nothing wrong with giving him one. But if he's grumpily demanding an ice cream cone at 7:45 in the morning, what he wants - whether he realizes it or not - is some protein and whole grains and a little encouragement to get him going on his day.

So you given him eggs and toast, and you watch him struggle to accept it. Sometimes he does and sometimes he doesn't, but either way, you'll be here. You'll forgive him for whatever names he calls you and you'll put the healthy breakfast in the fridge, waiting for him when he's ready to eat it.

"Increase my faith." I've said it to God plenty of times, imagining a prayer life that is effortless and a sacramental life that is uncomplicated, and acceptance of truth that is unshakeable. Easy faith - that's what I'm asking for, and lots of it, please.

But easy faith isn't faith at all, and faith that you aren't strong enough to hold will break your arms. And what God will never do is say, "Sure, kiddo, hear you go," and pass off a false gift as the real thing, just to make us both feel good. He won't hand me something I'm not strong enough to hold.

That would be a classic lazy-father move. That would be an ice-cream-cone-at-7:45 am move.

Instead, He watches carefully while I navigate the bumpy terrain of the spiritual life, ready to whisper directions in my ear. He holds His breath while the challenges of this world create deep grooves in my soul - and then He irrigates those grooves with the life-giving waters of grace, transforming them into valleys of consolation and respite.

Sometimes I call Him names. Sometimes I refuse what He's offering. It's not what I asked for, after all.

But it's what I want. Luckily, He knows that better than me.

DEVOTIONS, EXPLAINED!

God is Good, All the Time

Mini Explanation:

This popular phrase is an affirmation of God's faithfulness amidst the trials of life, a theme that is presented again and again in Scripture: come what may, God will be with us.

God is Good, All the Time: Explained!

Perhaps you have been a member of a congregation to whom the pastor says, expectantly, "God is good!" The congregation responds, faithfully, "All the time." In turn, the speaker repeats: "All the time." And the congregation affirms: "God is good!"

A collective affirmation of God's faithfulness amidst the trials of life, this refrain communicates a theme presented again and again in Scripture: Come what my, God will be with us.

There is no official consensus on the origins of this saying, though it is often associated with African Christianity. Whatever this saying's roots, its message is truth: "For the Lord is good; His mercy is everlasting; and His truth endures to all generations," says Psalm 100:5. "Give thanks to the Lord, for He is good! For His mercy endures forever," echoes 1 Chronicles 16:34. Jesus confirms this in Matthew 28:20: "I am with you always, even to the end of the age. ©LPi
