COUNTING OUR BLESSINGS

In America, where a major pastime is watching television, it is very easy to fall into the subconscious habit of comparing ourselves - our wealth, age, beauty, living quarters, apparel, possessions, and social status - with the people we see on TV.

Instead of comparing our lives to the "hand-picked segments of American life" that television producers choose to show us, we need to take a realistic look at where we, Americans, stand in comparison to the rest of the world. Looking at this global "bigger picture" will place our lives into proper perspective. If this doesn't make us grateful, nothing will!

- If you woke up this morning with more health than illness...you are more blessed than the 1 million who will not survive this week.
- If you have never experienced the danger of battle, the loneliness of imprisonment, the agony of torture, or the pangs of starvation...you are better off than 500 million people in the world.
- If you can attend a church meeting without fear of harassment, arrest, torture, or death...you are more blessed than 3 billion people of the world.
- If you have food and a refrigerator in which to keep it, clothes on your back, a roof overhead and a warm place to sleep...you are richer than 75% of the world!
- If you can read this article, you are more educated than over 2 billion people in the world who are illiterate.
- If you have money in the bank, currency in your wallet, and more spare change in a dish someplace...you rank among the 8% of the world's wealthiest people.

Compared to the rest of the world, we live like royalty! So the next time we begin to compare our standard of living with anyone else's, let's remember that we really have much for which we can be thankful, including blessings that money can't buy. PEACE

WHY DID YOU COME, LORD, THE WAY YOU DID?

Poor, homeless, God among us?

Born, not among the leaders and princes whose names are long since forgotten, except for Herod;

Who wanted to kill you;

Born, among the outcasts of society;

Within the love of Joseph and Mary;

Why did you come like this?

Maybe the silence of your birth broken by the hymn of the angels'

The Cry of a baby and the noise of an animal says it all;

That God is as simple and as complex as a child;

And always on the side of the poor.

Why did you come, Lord, the way you did?

COME, LET US ADORE HIM DID YOU EVER WONDER WHY -

The carol "A Partridge in a Pear Tree" is sung at Christmas? It's because the twelve days between Christmas Epiphany were used by English Catholics in 1558 after the religious persecutions to explain their faith without exciting suspicion.

The "true love" of the carol is God; the partridge is a symbol of Christ. The two turtle doves represent the sacrifice Jewish parents made in the temple - the Mass is the new sacrifice. The three French hens symbolize the Magi and their gifts but also faith, hope and charity, the prime virtues. Four calling birds mean the four Gospels, while the five gold rings hint at the first five books of the Bible. The six geese-a-laying are the six days of creation. The seven swans a-swimming are the seven gifts of the Spirit and seven works of mercy, The eight milk maids are the eight beatitudes, while the nine ladies dancing are the nine fruits of the spirit. The ten lords a-leaping symbolize the ten commandments and the eleven pipers the eleven apostles, without Judas. The twelve drummers point to the twelve beliefs of the Apostles' Creed.

How's that for a catechism!

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

December 28, 2025

The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph

(Matthew 2:13-15, 19-23)

When I was ten, my dad gathered our family around the table in small-town Vermont and told us we were moving to the big desert city of Phoenix, Arizona. We were leaving behind family, friends, and everything familiar. None of us knew what to expect.

But something beautiful happened. As we made the move together, our family grew closer. In retrospect, I'm amazed at my parents' courage to go on that adventure. Even as a kid I realize our family found, in that challenge, a deeper unity and mutual love. In today's Gospel, Joseph is told: "Rise, take the child and his mother, and flee..." (Matthew 2:13, 20). First to Egypt, then later to Israel. The Holy Family is frequently challenged to move and change, to adapt to God's will for them, in order to find safety in the midst of threat. It's not just an idiosyncratic story about survival. It's a spiritual pattern for all of us. Every Christian family is called to be a kind of sanctuary, especially in a world full of noise, busyness, and fear.

May I make a practical application for us? The Lord's Day, Sunday, is perhaps the most practical way we imitate this dynamic we see in Joseph and his family. Sunday is not meant to be just like every other day, filled with errands and stress. It's meant to be a day set apart; a holy "escape" into rest, worship, joy, and peace. A day to rise, take your family, and flee into God's presence.

~ Father John Muir
