CONGRATULATIONS, JOSEPHINE!

The parishioners and priests at Blessed Sacrament Church would like to congratulate Josephine Di Liberti on her retirement as sacristan.

Josephine has been sacristan for 25 years keeping the daily and weekend Masses proceeding behind the scenes making sure linens were taken care of, candles were full, Holy Water fonts were changed weekly, and many other duties.

Thank you, Josephine, for your many years of service to Blessed Sacrament, the priests, and parishioners! Enjoy your retirement!

You will be missed!

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Get to know Jesus

When I speak and write, I mention my family quite often. Those of you who have been reading these reflections for the past 5+ years - or who have read my books - may think you know them. When I travel, I do get asked about my family by those who have entered my life through the words on a page. My hope is that by sharing stories about my family and life the reader gets a chance to see himself or herself in the story as well. Then the point being made in the article or reflection can take on stronger meaning because it hits home. However, no matter how much I write about my family and how much you read about them, you will only have a glimpse as to the real people. It will take an actual relationship with one of them to get you to the point where you can say you know them.

That is the same way with Jesus. First, more Catholics need to read more and learn more about Jesus. Bible studies should be the norm and not the exception in our lives.

Second, too many of us in the Church can explain who Jesus is from our past formation classes and reading, but we do not actually know Him. Jesus is not a topic, a theological term, or simply a historical figure. He is a real being who is alive! He is not dead, but alive! He calls us to do more than read about Him. He calls us into an intimate relationship with Him. We grow in relationship with Jesus by worshipping at the Mass, spending time with Him in adoration, resting in Him in the quiet and by having the Jesus in us meet the Jesus in others. If you do not know Him personally, get to know Him. I would love for you all to meet my family someday, but I would much rather you get to know Jesus instead.

Caught in the Rising Action

Think of some of your favorite iconic movies. I'm not talking about the feel-good comedies or the offbeat coming-of-age flicks. I'm talking about the movies that you found had a profound impact on you or made you go "Hmmm".

I'm willing to bet that the plot of this film features some tough moments and difficult scenarios. However happy the ending, at some point, the situation for the protagonist might look awfully hopeless. The script speaks some truth to you about what it is to be human in difficult circumstances. What it means to persevere.

We're attracted to the tension that exists when the hero is besieged. We're captivated by the decisions he makes in the darkest hour of the night when it seems like the dawn will never come.

Why? Because we know that feeling so well. This is the essence of our human life on earth: waiting, hoping, doubting - and enduring.

We know the ending to our story, but we don't know when it's coming. We live our whole lives in the rising action of the narrative. Sure, it gets old. Tiresome, even dull. We may start to despair that the climactic scene is coming at all.

But faith is the realization of things hoped for, and evidence of things not seen. We feel it watching a great movie, because we recognize it intuitively: it is faith which earns the happy ending. No one is drawn to the story when the hero gives up or gets tired of waiting for the payoff. Everyday stewardship is the collection of choices we make while we're waiting, because we are called to action, not idleness, even in our perpetual state of expectation.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

August 17, 2025

Luke 12:49-53

During my baseball career, my best coach often said, "You shouldn't be worried if I yell at you. Be worried if I don't. If I stop pushing you, it means I don't think you have any more potential." He demanded a lot, and I knew it meant he saw that I could be something special on the baseball field.

Jesus says some demanding words to us this week. "Do you think I have come to establish peace on the earth?" He asks, "No, tell you, but rather division" (Luke 12:51). He wants you and me - in fact, all the earth - to participate in the luminous glory of God. That's why He speaks of Himself as a divine arsonist. Divine fire is like a good coach: it demands the removal of all that obstructs the achievement of the lofty goal.

How is your life demanding right now? That inconvenient family situation, the unfair boss at work, the kids who reject their parents' wishes, the nagging health issue? Maybe things would be more peaceful devoid of these seemingly arbitrary difficulties. But for us who believe in the one who comes to set the earth of fire, we should be much more worried if He stops demanding so much from us. In fact, let's thank Him for it. He sees how glorious we can become.
