FAMILY LIFE

During the Christmas Season, we celebrate many different feast days associated with the first Christmas. Today we celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph. The fact that God chose for Jesus to be born into a family, with Mary and Joseph, reveals how Jesus is like us. He too needed a family to love him and help him grow.

Among the many insights provided about the Holy Family in Matthew’s Gospel is that their family life was filled with tensions and unexpected turns. In this way, the Holy Family is a role model of faith for all families. No parents raising children, the Holy Family included, are free from struggle and pain. All parents who raise their children in faith and trust in the Lord have built a home with a strong foundation.

Twists and turns are part of our salvation history. The lineage of Jesus is filled with surprising people, unexpected hardships, scandals, as well as generosity and great faith. Their stories remind us that God’s promises are fulfilled but not always as we would have expected. We wait in hope not because we know the future, but because we trust God.

Today’s feast makes clear that holy families are human families, with gifts and challenges. Love contains joy and wonder, pain and fear. This is a day to give thanks for our families and the ways that our families help us.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to Elizabeth Gerwitz Dunn who has been named to the first quarter honor roll at Cardinal O’Hara High School.

RECEIPT OF TAX DEDUCTIBLE CONTRIBUTIONS

By law, contributions that are to be used as a 2019 tax deduction by the donor must be postmarked or in the hands of the parish no later than December 31. We will only issue year end contribution statements for 2019 if requested.

Anyone who requires a tax statement may contact the rectory at 852-6040 or write “Tax Statement” on the front of your church envelope.

VOCATION THOUGHT

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, as members of the Holy Family, always supported each other in doing God’s will, even though this was not always easy and meant letting go and trusting God. As the family of God’s children, we are to help each other in doing God’s will, which may be a vocation to priesthood or religious life. Let us not stand in the way of those whom God has called. If God is calling you to a Church vocation, call Father Andrew Lauricella at 847-5535.

As we look back on 2019, we give thanks for all that we have been able to accomplish here at St. Louis by working together, praying together and sharing together. We pray that 2020 will be a year filled with good health, happiness and success. May we all be closer to God and to each other one year from now.

ANNUAL PRESERVATION FUND DRIVE

Thank you to everyone who has so generously donated to our Preservation Fund Drive. Thanks to your generosity in the past we have been able to maintain our beautiful church. With your generous support we will continue to be able to keep everything in good repair. Donations will be accepted until December 31st. So far, $40,233 has been donated.

BLESSED TRINITY CHURCH

On Sunday, December 29th, from 12:30 p.m. to 2:30 p.m., Blessed Trinity Church, 317 Leroy Avenue will host an Explore Buffalo Sacred Spaces Tour. Trained parish docents will explain to tour participants the architectural and symbolism features of this Landmark church. It’s a marvelous opportunity for WNY residents to bring your out-of-town holiday visitors to a place of light, warmth, and beautiful Christmas decorations! Explore Buffalo is sponsoring the tour and taking reservations at www.explorebuffalo.org or 716-245-3032. Walk-ins are welcome as well.

Later that afternoon—December 29—at 3:00 p.m. the St. John Paul II Schola Cantorum will present “Catholic Treasures of Advent and Christmas”, a concert of sacred choral masterpieces of the season from the Renaissance to the 21st century. The Schola Cantorum will perform works by Elgar, Byrd, Palestrina, Bach, Victoria, Gallus, LeJeune and others. This free concert will be followed by a singalong of traditional Christmas Carols.

The St. John Paul II Schola Cantorum is an independent a cappella choir dedicated to performing, promoting and preserving the treasury of sacred choral music of the Catholic Church. For more information, follow them on Facebook at www.facebook.com/JP2Schola
